Traditionally rugs were hand made with natural dyes and colours. Today rugs are still hand made in China, Afghanistan, Romania, Spain, Turkey, Nepal, India and North Africa.

Machine made rugs are also produced world wide including Australia, USA, India, Pakistan and China.

Rugs can be challenging because of these many variables, this highlights why correct identification of the type and age of the rug is paramount for the successful cleaning and restoration of your rug.

To clean rugs safely and effectively we have a Master Rug Cleaner available with a fantastic working knowledge of fibres, rug construction, cleaning principles and procedures to provide the best results and return your rugs to you in the best possible condition.

Rugs bear the brunt of tough wear 'n tear; including pets, pot plants and high traffic. We return your rug after cleaning with bio degradable soaps to its original opulence and magnificence.
